BHS Essential Horse Knowledge Certificate Course Level 1

Sunday 8th July 2018

The BHS EHKC is the perfect introduction to equine care and management, as well as being an informative and interesting course for those with a little more experience.

Ideal for non-horsey parents, first time horse owners/carers or those wishing to expand their knowledge - the course equips you with information regarding the care and welfare of the horse. This course is an ideal follow on from the entry level certificate and covers information on the process of buying a horse and the basic costs of ownership.

The course will run for four consecutive Sundays from 2-5pm

£90.00 per person

Summer Sunday Pub Hacks

29th July & 26th August 2017

Come and enjoy our lovely farmland and local EAFR/Woodland Trust riding that we have to offer with an extended hack that includes a stop at one of our local pubs. Riders must be able to canter for these rides (new riders are welcome to join us after they have completed an assessment lesson prior to the hack).

3pm -5pm approx

£50.00 per person

£48.00 Loyalty Scheme Members

Please note we will pay for a coke/lemonade for each rider but please bring additional money with you if you would like to purchase an alternative drink.
